Access

By public transport or by car to Brussels Airport

By train

The train terminal is located directly under the departures and arrivals halls. The platform is easily accessible by lift or escalator. By train, you can travel from various Belgian cities or from neighbouring countries to Brussels Airport. Have you just arrived by train at Brussels Airport station? Keep your ticket at hand. You have to scan it at the entrance gates to enter the airport. Brussels city is really around the corner with 8 trains / hour to and from Brussels Airport.

By car

Brussels Airport is readily accessible by car. Car park P1, P2 and P3 are right in front of the terminal..

Brussels Airport boasts 1 budget car park. Whilst this is located slightly further from the airport, you pay significantly less and a handy shuttle brings you to the terminal quickly and free of charge.

Parking spaces for people with disabilities can be found close to the exit of the car parks. Trolleys are available at all car parks.

Powered Parking Spots* for e-cars are also available at various locations in P1 (397 spots), P1 VIP (40 spots) and P3 (70 spots).

Brussels Airport hosts several partners for car rental & car sharing. Easy pick-up & drop-off of your car.

*These parking spaces cannot be reserved. First come, first serve base.

By bus

The bus station is located one floor down from the Arrivals Hall, at level 0. The escalator or elevator provides easy access to the bus station.

- STIB/MIVB Airport Line 12 takes you daily, from morning till evening, to the European district and the city centre. It offers a connection with the metro at Schuman (lines 1-5) and at Trône/Troon (lines 2-6).
- De Lijn provides a seamless bus service to the area surrounding the airport and Brussels city centre and the entire Vlaamse Rand.
- Airport Express Antwerp Brussels Airport: Service available 7/7 and every two hours. Travel comfortable in approximately 45 min to and from Brussels Airport.
- Both Flibco.com & Flixbus serve Brussels Airport multiple times a day, connecting it to various cities in Belgium, as well as France and the Netherlands.
